Dedication —

For her never ending kindness,
For her sweet and friendly way,
For her cheerful disposition,
For her spirit always gay,

For her pleasant, warming smile,
For the help she freely lends,
For her work as our advisor,
To our teacher and our friend

Foreword

AS THE CHAIN OF MANY YEARS is completed with the link of this last year at John Marshall High School, as we know it today, it is only fitting and proper that the theme for our 1960 MARSHALLITE be carried out through the words of our Alma Mater, "Dear Old John Marshall."

These words will always have a special meaning for each of us, as true Marshallites, and we are proud to have been a part of a high school so honored and revered, and we shall always cherish our "high school school days" here at Jayem.

In these words, too, is so much that is life itself. Through application of the thoughts expressed in the song to our school life, as well as to our future life, we become better citizens, and our lives are enriched with the character traits so necessary in our relation to others.

In developing our theme we have tried to show the true meaning of the words of our Alma Mater, with the knowledge in our hearts that we shall remember as the happiest days of our lives those we spent in John Marshall High School.

OUR ADVERTISERS 151

As we entered John Marshall, little did we realize how important the coming years would be to us. It was here that we learned to accept our misfortunes and defeats as well as our successes.

Here we spent our happiest years, and here we made friendships which we will never forget.

Through success and misfortunes, happiness and sorrow, the teachers and students of Jayem helped to make it one of our nation's finest schools.

John Marshall will always remain in our thoughts and hearts as the place of our happiest memories.

Dear old John Marshall,
Home of our high school days

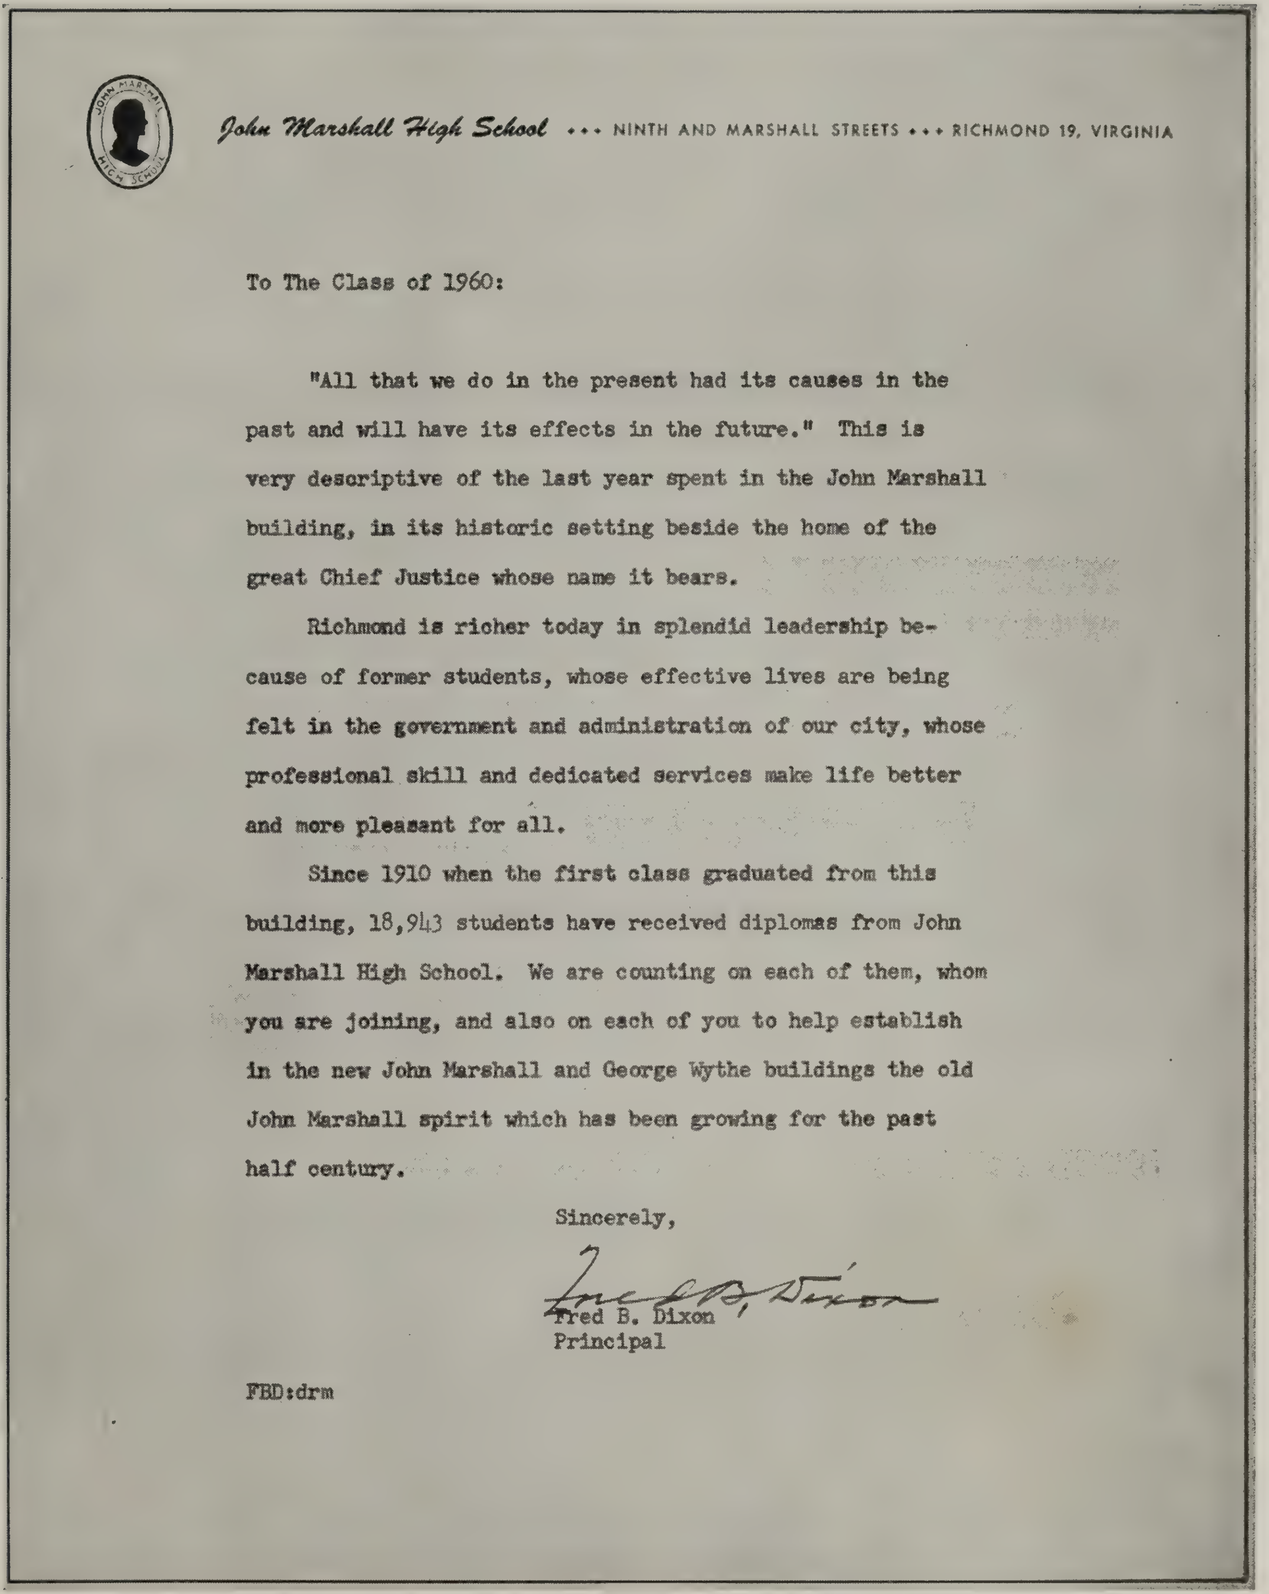
DR. FRED B. DIXON

Principal



John Marshall High School ••• NINTH AND MARSHALL STREETS ••• RICHMOND 19, VIRGINIA

To The Class of 1960:

"All that we do in the present had its causes in the past and will have its effects in the future." This is very descriptive of the last year spent in the John Marshall building, in its historic setting beside the home of the great Chief Justice whose name it bears.

Richmond is richer today in splendid leadership because of former students, whose effective lives are being felt in the government and administration of our city, whose professional skill and dedicated services make life better and more pleasant for all.

Since 1910 when the first class graduated from this building, 18,943 students have received diplomas from John Marshall High School. We are counting on each of them, whom you are joining, and also on each of you to help establish in the new John Marshall and George Wythe buildings the old John Marshall spirit which has been growing for the past half century.

Sincerely,

Fred B. Dixon
Principal

OSCAR H. PARRISH

THE Marshallite Staff of 1960 would like to express its sincere thanks to Mr. Oscar Parrish for his untiring efforts to make the Marshallite a success. He has worked diligently as the Chairman of the Yearbook Board since 1952.

The School Board and Administrative Staff

THE Richmond School Board meets regularly once a month and then there are many special meetings. The making of school laws, the interpreting of regulations, and the welfare of today's and tomorrow's school children are the business of members of the board. Their lot is not an easy one, but with the aid of school principals, teachers, and counselors they help to make the life of each student a better one. Members of this important organization are: Lewis F. Powell, Jr., Board Chairman; Mrs. Kenneth F. Lee, Board Vice-Chairman; Booker T. Bradshaw, Board Member; Frank S. Calkins, Board Member; Edward C. Peple, Board Member; Dr. H. I. Willett, Superintendent; Thomas C. Little, Assistant Superintendent and Clerk of the Board; William H. Deierhoi, Assistant Superintendent and Agent of the Board; Lucien D. Adams, Assistant Superintendent; and Henry M. Eubank, Deputy Clerk of the Board.

Miss Pauline Benton
February 27, 1960

This year John Marshall suffered the loss of two fine teachers, Miss Mary Sue Muckenfuss and Miss Pauline Benton. Both of these teachers were deeply interested in the problems of the pupils and worked hard to help them. With cheerful smiles and kind words they tried to make John Marshall a better school for each one of us.

QUIET PLEASE—ON THE AIR

SCHOOL DAYS AT J.M.

Graduation day at last! It's hard to believe, after so many long years of going to school, that finally the time to say "good-bye" has come. Not only must we say good-bye to our friends, teachers, and school life, but also to John Marshall High School itself, for this is the last year for Jayem as we have always known it. This year will be filled with many good-byes as well as many memories of our last year at "Dear Old John Marshall."

In September students were not only greeted by many new faces, but also by the pile drivers that were on hand with their "Thud, thud, sh-sh," causing protests from teachers, and shouts of glee from the students because the drivers provided an adequate excuse for not "hearing the assignments."

Jayem's football team had a winning season with only one victory, but that victory was the most important of the year. Our boys came through with a 12 to 6 defeat over Tee Jay, our arch rival. With this winning game, John Marshall ended its football season with shouts of joy, for truly this last game in this final year was indeed a triumph.

DEEP THOUGHTS

STAND UP AND YELL

The Cheerleaders were also on hand at the games and pep rallies to help promote school spirit among the Marshallites. They added a new member to the squad, Deesie Dodd, the five-year old mascot. For the first time Jayem had Junior Varsity Cheerleaders to cheer for the Jayvee Basketball team and to help support the Varsity football and basketball teams.

Many of the seniors observed John Marshall Day at the Richmond Area Community Chest Luncheon on Monday, October 26.

John Marshall honored its war dead in the traditional Armistice Day ceremony on November 11, at 11:00. Students gathered in front of the John Marshall building, the taps were played and the colors dipped.

Harvey Crone, William Matthews, and Tommy Reynolds placed the wreaths at the plaque in the foyer and front hall.

Dr. C. Gordon Brownville, pastor of Second Baptist Church, presented the In Memoriam and the Prayer.

The Women's Faculty met the Girls' Varsity basketball team in their first contest for many years, on January 18. The game, which was held in the Armory, was won by the Girls' Varsity. Even Coach Anderson and Coach Goodlow, serving as substitutes could not help the Ladies of the faculty overcome the 13-point lead of the Lady Justices in the last quarter. The final score was Faculty, 12, Varsity, 25.

Again this year the Key Club played the faculty in an exciting game that ended with a victory for the faculty. Try as they might the Key Club just couldn't come through with a victory.

In the annual Thanksgiving assembly, homerooms contributed baskets of food which were sent to Sheltering Arms Hospital and the Crippled Children's Home.

A brief history of Thanksgiving was presented by Miss Peple's speech class.

On December 11, the Girls' Athletic Association presented its annual talent show. The theme was "Dear Santa." Letters expressing students' wishes were read by Mr. and Mrs. Santa, and each act in the show represented one of the requests in the letters.

The Senior Class presented the traditional pageant as part of the annual celebration of Christmas among the students. The pageant showed various scenes picturing the story of the Nativity.

February brought excitement among the high seniors. Calling cards were given out and announcements were sent. Finally the awaited day had come and signs of graduation were in the air.

To climax the senior year, juniors and seniors were whisked into a dream world of silver stars and cupids spinning to the music of the Leagers. The theme of the prom was "One Enchanted Evening." The winners of Who's Who for the February class were introduced at the prom.

The basketball team had a very good season this year. They won 11 of the games played and lost 7. Jayem made a good showing at the Central District Tournament, but they couldn't quite surpass the lead set for them by Hopewell in the third period.

THE LAST WALK

SIX FOOT TWO

Marshallites had a three-day holiday this term, as a result of the snow. Sleigh riding, and snowballing in 5 to 10 inches of snow broke the monotony of studies for Jayem students.

On March 9, and 16, Mrs. Norris' senior English class presented a historical pageant of John Marshall High School. Each member of the class represented one particular event in Jayem's history.

On April 29, the Jayem band went to Winchester to participate in the Apple Blossom Festival Parade.

Juniors and seniors drifted along memory lane to the theme of "Through the Years," at the Junior-Senior Prom, May 21.

White columns in the southern style, Spanish moss, flowers, and a glowing sunset captured the many memories of Jayem that each of us hold so dear. Music was furnished by the Knight Rockers and winners of the Who's Who in the June graduating class were introduced in a colonial style.

"May Memories" was the theme of our May Day festivities this year. Members of the G. A. A. and the gym classes provided the entertainment with dances of past May Days and the winding of the Maypole.

The last few weeks of school for the seniors were exciting ones. Not only were their minds filled with the joy of signing annuals, the fun of exchanging calling cards, and the anxiety over exams, but also the ever present thought of this final year at Jayem.

As we took the final walk through the tunnel, attended the last assembly, watched the last ball game, and heard the final dismissal bell we were proud that we were able to be a part of "Dear Old John Marshall."

RICHMOND HIGH SCHOOL FROM JOHN MARSHALL HOUSE PORCH

HISTORY

The early history of John Marshall High School is found in the beginning of public high school education in Richmond. It is a story of continuing growth in number of pupils and teachers, and in development of a more adequate curriculum. The location has always been in the shadow of the John Marshall House.

The Richmond High School was established in 1872, on Broad between Ninth and Tenth Streets. Its faculty was Mr. William F. Fox, principal, and two teachers. The length of the high school course was three years, and the enrollment was forty-nine pupils. In June of 1875, the first class was graduated with six boys and eight girls. When the school was ten years old, in 1882, it had a faculty of twelve and an enrollment of 393. It is of interest to note that the John Marshall House itself was once a part of the Richmond High School. After eighteen years of service as principal, Mr. William F. Fox became City Superintendent of Schools. His successor, Mr. William A. Bowles, was principal for only one year. Mr. Julian P. Thomas followed with a term of fifteen years. In 1905, James Coleman Harwood became principal.

March 24, 1908, was the day when the ground was broken for the new building on Marshall Street. With shovels painted blue and white, representatives from each homeroom broke the earth. The new building was situated on the block from Marshall to Clay and from Eighth to Ninth Streets beside the John Marshall House. Today John Marshall is the only high school in the United States with a national shrine on its campus. In September, 1909, the building was not completed, but the school was moved anyway. The name was changed to John Marshall about this time.

During the next five years, several important developments had their beginning. On November 15, 1909, the John Marshall Record, a literary magazine, was started. The purpose was to encourage the literary efforts of the students. Manchester became South Richmond in 1910, and all high school students were transferred from that section to John Marshall. This same year an alumni association was formed. The John Marshall orchestra began as a mandolin club in 1911. The first Marshallite, the school yearbook, was published in the spring of 1911. Both the Marshallite and the Record have brought many honors to John Marshall. The first class to be graduated with a four-year course was in January, 1911. The library was established and a librarian was appointed. Free text books were issued in 1912.

On June 24, 1915, a resolution was passed to set up a Corps of Cadets. Its purpose was "to instill the duties and principles of citizenship." Edwin P. Conquest was the first commandant. When the United States entered World War I, students, faculty members, and hundreds of alumni joined the armed forces. The bronze tablet on the east wall of the lobby is dedicated to the memory of those who died for their country. The front lawn became a war garden. This was an example of what might be done for the conservation of food in any section of the city. As a result, the school cafeteria opened.

During the year of 1918, when the United States entered World War I, a terrible flu epidemic occurred, and the school became a temporary hospital. School was dismissed for five weeks. Two days after school reopened, Armistice Day was declared. Students went to their classes as if this were a usual day. A parade in celebration of victory was called by the officials.

In 1922, John Marshall celebrated its fifteenth anniversary. The next year, 1923, saw the George Wythe building ready for use. During these years commencement exercises were held at the City Auditorium, which had been built for a public market. The Monocle began its publication on March 1, 1929. Its first editor was Frank McCarthy; its sponsor was Miss Charles Anthony. This school paper has brought many honors to John Marshall. The John Marshall Athletic Field was presented to the school in 1937. In 1938, the tunnel between John Marshall and George Wythe was opened. In 1938, the Students Participation Association was established. In the fall of 1940, no team crossed the path of the John Marshall goal line.

A Girls' Victory Corps was organized during World War II. In 1943, the V. M. I. building was first used by John Marshall for vocational purposes. The large bronze plaque in the front hall facing the office is a reminder of the many John Marshall boys who lost their lives in this war. The memorial tablet was dedicated May 1, 1947.

retirement of Mr. Harwood in 1947. Under the leadership of Dr. Dixon, the Parent-Teacher-Student Association was formed with these groups sharing the responsibilities of this organization.

Continued change and growth marked the next twelve years. In 1948, the twelve-year school system reached John Marshall. Anniversary ceremonies for forty years in the John Marshall building were held in 1949. The twin-Flagpole Memorial to cadet alumni was dedicated in 1950 to the boys who gave their lives in the Armed Forces in World War I and II. It was dedicated before the entire student body. The first May Day was held in 1950. For the first time in 1952, the senior class attended a presidential inauguration, that of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and the Corps of Cadets marched in the parade. In 1953, the first Miss Justice was elected at John Marshall. The last operetta, H. M. S. Pinafore, was presented in 1954. Until 1947, it had been a tradition to present plays and operettas on elternate years. During 1955, on the front lawn a pageant, written by Walter Beverly, was presented to commemorate the bi-centennial celebration of the birth of Chief Justice John Marshall.

In recent years, evidences of greater emphasis on scholastic achievements have appeared. The first language laboratory was dedicated on March 23, 1959, and was named the Mildred A. Kline Language Laboratory. In 1959, promotion was changed from semi-annual to annual. Starting in September, 1960, an additional number of credits will be required for graduation: twenty-three credits are to be accumulated, beginning with the eighth grade.

To meet the needs of the future expanding Richmond, the school board planned two new high schools. Following the custom of naming senior high schools for historical figures, the new schools have been named John Marshall and George Wythe.

Thus, in June 1960, fifty-one years of public high school education in the building with a historic shrine on its campus comes to a close.

May Day

On May 4, John Marshall's Girls' Athletic Association sponsored the May Day ceremonies that have become traditional at John Marshall for many years. Anne Marie Jackson reigned as May Queen with Sally Clay Crenshaw as her Maid of Honor.

The princesses of the senior class were Pat Brooks, Mary Burger, Sandra Carver, Nancy Reid, Virginia Worsham and Jackie Roberson. Two princesses were also selected from each of the lower grades. All wore gowns of pastel colors.

The theme of the May Day festivities was "May Memories." Different physical education classes gave their interpretations of various songs of the past May Days. The dances were "Dutch-doll Dance" from Dance of the Nations, "Waltz of the Flowers" from A Touch of Spring, "March of the Tin Soldiers" from Happy Holidays, "Angel Dance" from Hansel and Gretel, "All the King's Horses" from Mother Goose, "Wedding Dance" from Cinderella, "March of Siamese Children" from Broadway Hits, "French Can-can" from Roamin' Holiday, "Blue Skies" from Weather Vane, and "Cha-Cha" from Showboat.

Miss Justice . . . BOBBIE McBRIDE

Bobbie McBride, a high senior, was crowned Miss Justice of 1959 at the annual J. M.-T. J. ball game on Friday night, November 20, at the city stadium.

Jeanne Tiller, Miss Justice of 1958, crowned the new Miss Justice at the game.

The princesses, Pat Brooks, Sally Crenshaw, Lois Frye, Maureen Garrett, Phyllis Gary, Linda Holbrook, and Peggy Medlin, accompanied Miss Justice on the John Marshall float.

Like the other candidates, Bobbie possesses school spirit and participated in many school activities. She was sponsor of the Band, May Queen, and a member of the School Spirit Commission. During her junior year she was a Justice Clown.

"Being crowned Miss Justice was the most thrilling moment of my life and I shall never forget what an honor it was and how proud I felt to represent a wonderful school at the biggest event of the year."

Preceding the Jayem-Teejay game on November 20, John Marshall held three pep rallies to build up support for the team.

Saturday night, November 21, a Victory Dance was held at Walton's for the football players, cheerleaders, Miss Justice, and the candidates for Miss Justice and their dates. Sally Crenshaw, a candidate for Miss Justice, said, "After all the hard work that was put forth for the game and the dance, it was really wonderful when we beat T. J."

John Marshall High School's long, fruitful history has been highlighted by the accomplishments of its many fine clubs, service organizations, and publications. These groups have never been content to do only their part, but have always striven to do "just a little better than best."

Throughout the years at Jayem, the goal of each of these clubs has been to bring honor to our school—a goal which they have truly attained. Because of these organizations, each graduate will carry with him wonderful memories of the days spent at John Marshall.

We'll always sing your praise,

The Student Association is comprised of the school officers, the executive committee, the commissions, and the student body. The officers and the members of the executive committee are elected during the spring semester for a one-year term.

The purpose of the Student Association is to provide for student participation in the government of John Marshall; to promote a better understanding between the faculty and students; to promote and encourage activities beneficial to the school; to add support to the school sports; and to create among the student body qualities of leadership, friendliness, loyalty, and school spirit.

The two main activities of the Student Association for the 1959-1960 term were sponsoring a "Dress Neatly" Week and reorganizing the Character Commission.

"Dress Neatly" Week was promoted by the Student Association in December to encourage neatness in dress among the student body. The campaign was successful and as a result a "Dress Neatly" Day was sponsored twice each month.

The Character Commission was reorganized for the purpose of rewriting the honor code. An election was held in which reprersentatives from each grade were chosen to work on the commission. The commission rewrote the honor code and will present it to the two new high schools in September.

Other activities of the Student Association for the year include sponsoring buses to some of the football games, sponsoring a "Whispering Campaign" during football season to promote school spirit, presenting the Thanksgiving assembly, helping to improve the cafeteria problems, selling John Marshall pencils, having a Valentine party, promoting school spirit, and presenting an orientation program for the new students.

The executive committee would like to thank its sponsors, Miss Anita Raffo and Miss Jacqueline Randlette, for their guidance during the term.

The John Marshall Junior Red Cross opened its activities this term with its annual enrollment campaign. Most of the students showed enthusiastic support by contributing $265. Homeroom 104 made the largest contribution and was rewarded with a box of candy.

The Junior Red Cross booklet, Junior Journal, was again sent to the shut-in children who have the pleasure of seeing their writings and drawings in print. This booklet is published by Mr. Jorgensen's class and gives the shut-ins great satisfaction.

Members heard the call from Medical College for nurses' aids and turned out fifty strong to take the necessary courses so that they might be of service to the children in the polio and rheumatic fever wards. The nurses' aids read to them, helped feed them, and in many ways made their hospital days seem shorter. The Christmas party there was a great success. The Junior Red Cross adopted three children at the Medical College whom they remembered with gifts, cards, and visits.

In the meantime the organization did not forget the children in our own schools who need bus certificates or lunch money.

Several of our members have been giving their time on Saturdays at McGuire Hospital where they roll bandages, run errands, and help in many ways.

Our slogan of "SERVICE" is thus rendered to the community and school.

National Honor Society

Each semester the John Marshall Chapter of the National Honor Society taps its new members. Only students who have certain qualifications can be taken into the society. These students must be seniors who have maintained a minimum average of 90 all the way through high school and who have the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service acceptable to the society. They must also have the approval of all their teachers; if only one has anything to say against a student, he is not accepted.

On January 6 of this semester, the Honor Society inducted 36 new members, making 40 the total active membership at John Marshall.

The Honor Society is a national high school organization which has been maintained through the years by the National Association of Secondary-School Principals as a professional organization and as a service to schools and students. It is devoid of commercialism and there are no annual dues for students or schools. The only fee for the school is five dollars when the charter is granted.

It was founded and its constitution was written in 1921, but the organization did almost nothing until 1922 when the form of charter was approved and the official emblem adopted. The emblem is the flaming torch and the keystone, which bears at its base the letters C, S, L, and S, which stand for Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. The keystone represents the high ideals of the society and the flaming torch, the purpose.

The Honor Society gives recognition to outstanding students, encourages the development of the qualities previously mentioned, and identifies potential leaders for school and country. Another advantage is that it encourages other students to strive for the honor of membership.

This year the Honor Society has been primarily an honorary group.

The John Marshall Key Club is a service organization serving both the school and the students. It is sponsored by the Richmond Kiwanis Club and is one of more than one thousand clubs throughout the world. Mr. James C. Harwood, Jr. is the faculty advisor and has served in this capacity for fourteen years.

The Key Club is composed of thirty-five boys who rank in the upper third of their class. To be eligible for membership, a boy must have a high grade average, must be recommended by a teacher, and must be voted on by the club. Every half term a girl from the 12H class is elected to serve as Sweetheart.

Due to the new schedule at John Marshall, the Key Club started meeting on Tuesday nights at Second Baptist Church. To keep up the tradition of having a meal together, supper-meetings were held each week. The club decorated a car for the J. M.-T. J. football game and assisted with the "Miss Justice" float. In the annual Key Club-Faculty basketball game, the Key Club fell before the power of the mighty Faculty. A banquet was given in honor of the presidents of other school organizations. In the fall of the year, the annual Father-Son banquet was held, and the Mothers' Day banquet was held in the spring.

Many activities have made this an interesting year. Together with the Key Clubs from Highland Springs and Thomas Jefferson, John Marshall presented a program to the Richmond Kiwanis Club in observance of National Key Club Week. The Key Club attended one of the evening services at Second Baptist Church. At the meetings various vocational programs gave the members opportunities to learn about the working world in order to better prepare them for the future. To help with the finances of the club, members were auctioned as dates to a group of girls from John Marshall.

Besides the many functions undertaken to better the school, the students, and the community, members of the Key Club found time to enjoy social get-togethers. The club sweethearts played a large part in providing social functions and adding interest to the meetings.

The Future Business Leaders of America is a national organization composed of students enrolled in a business subject and who are outstanding in the business field.

This organization holds that technical skills are not enough. Simply reading about educational, political, social, civic, and labor organizations can scarcely prepare people adequately for intelligent participation. The FBLA teaches its members how to operate an organization, prevent minority controls, and bring about desirable social, political, and economic changes through organization.

The John Marshall FBLA members participated in the National Convention in Washington, D. C., in the Regional Meeting at Mary Washington College, and in the State Convention in Roanoke.

This organization, however, is not always bent on business; it has socials at which members enjoy chatting, singing, playing games, and eating. This year the group had its annual banquet in the Miller and Rhoads Stag Room.

The Future Business Leaders of America is proud to have as its sponsors Miss Pela Bobbitt and Mr. Carl Jorgenson.

Pictured above is the Distributive Education Club, shown in its room in the John Marshall building. The members of this club are taking Distributive Education as a credit toward graduation. They attend school in the mornings and work during the afternoon at jobs related to distribution. The purpose of the club is to stimulate professional improvement. This is accomplished by bringing in outside speakers to discuss salesmanship, interviewing, display and advertising.

This year, the D. E. Club has participated in varied activities. They gave a contribution to the Christmas Mother Fund. During the year the D. E. Club entertained their employers with a morning coffee hour and an Employer-Employee Banquet. They had two students to participate in an Executive for a Day activity at Miller & Rhoads in October. In November several of the students went to radio station WLLY and recorded speeches concerning CAREERS IN RETAILING WEEK, to be played on the air. During January the club heard that Richmond had won the top National honors for its participation in CAREERS IN RETAILING WEEK. A State Convention, to which all Distributive Education students are invited, will highlight the club's activities in June.

The Diversified Occupations Training Program at John Marshall is designed primarily to offer select high school students an opportunity to prepare themselves for a specific trade or industrial occupation of their own choice through part-time employment while still in school.

The program operates through a cooperative agreement with employers, students, parents, and the school. Only students in the junior and senior years are eligible. A student meeting the requirements for entrance is permitted to select employment in one of several approved occupations. Employers co-operate with the school, serving as the students' training agency. Much care and thought are given by the co-ordinator and counselor to the satisfactory placement of each student. The student then receives training in the occupation of his choice under actual working conditions, devoting a minimum of three hours a day, five days a week to work on the job. The student devotes three hours a day to school work, receiving one hour of instruction specifically related to his job and two hours of instruction in subjects required for graduation. Credit is granted toward graduation for satisfactory work on the job. In addition, the learner is paid an hourly wage by his employer.

Diversified Occupations Club activities in which the D. O. students participate comprise annual State conventions, Employer-Employee conferences, regular monthly meetings, speakers from business and industry, and contests on local and state level.

Vocational Office Training is a coordinated work experience program offered to seniors who intend to work in an office after graduation. The Vocational Office Training Class is designed for students enrolled in the Business Department and also who are interested in learning how to operate many office machines. It is possible to earn two points a semester: one for classroom instruction, and one for actual experience.

V. O. T. offers specialized pre-employment training. It gives the senior student an opportunity to try out in a real job situation and saves time in discovering one's real interest and ability. V. O. T. enables a person to earn while learning. It assures him immediate full-time employment upon graduation, and accelerated promotion. It also helps develop a feeling of confidence in one's ability. In addition to these advantages, the program provides an opportunity for participation in the Future Business Leaders of America, a local chapter of the national organization.

Since V. O. T. students have proved themselves to be very desirable employees, there are many jobs available for them. Seniors in this program are employed as clerk-typists, clerk-stenographers, bookkeepers, comptometer operators, bank messengers and in many other jobs.

V. O. T. motto is: "It pays in many ways, to earn while you learn." The Vocational Office Training Co-ordinator is Mr. Carl E. Jorgensen.

The Future Teachers Club of John Marshall was founded in 1954 and named the Charles Anthony Club in honor of a former John Marshall teacher, Miss Charles Anthony. The main purpose of the club is to secure and maintain a balanced supply of qualified teachers. Through the club potential teachers receive many realistic experiences to help them develop readiness for college programs of teacher education.

Through programs on group dynamics, college information, self-evaluation, and vocational opportunities, members get a clear view of what awaits them in the field of teaching. The president and vice-president attended the Virginia Education Association Convention at Roanoke, Virginia, on October 1959.

To get a better idea of a teacher's duties, seniors in the Future Teachers of America Club visited some of the elementary schools of Richmond, Friday, April 8.

The Virginia Education Association surprised the girls from John Marshall and Thomas Jefferson at mid-morning by presenting them with corsages of red carnations and the F. T. A. emblem and giving the boys F. T. A. emblems. The Teejay art classes made these emblems.

Each spring, the V. E. A. sponsors the student visitation day in order that those who plan to go into teaching as a career can observe and help teach actual classes, as well as get a well-rounded idea of the full life of a teacher.

The Future Teachers Club meets the first Wednesday of each month in room 109 with its sponsor, Mrs. Zada D. Carver.

The Future Nurses' Club at John Marshall is a club for girls who are interested in the Nursing profession or something connected with it. The officers of the 1959-1960 term are: Shirley Ann Rogers, president; Nancy Collins, vice-president; Mary Johnson, secretary-treasurer; and Jane Rowe, historian. The membership of the club is now twenty-five. Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Lordi are the club's sponsors.

Every month the club tries to have a project. During the month of November, the girls took a field trip to Richmond Memorial Hospital. The head of the nursing staff showed the girls through the hospital. In December, mugs were made that resembled Santa Claus and taken to the children at Medical College Hospital. The mugs contained candy and they could be used as drinking cups afterward. The club made Valentine favors, during the month of February, to take to the children of the different hospitals. The favors were little cups decorated with hearts. At Easter they made little baskets and filled them with candy for the children, who still believed in the Easter Bunny.

The annual banquet of the Future Nurses' Club is held every May. At this banquet the new officers for the coming term are elected.

With the building of the two new high schools, the present members hope the two new clubs will carry on as well as the one at John Marshall.

The Girls' Athletic Association began its year with meetings after school on the first and third Mondays of each month. Miss Helen McKenny, who took over sponsorship from Mrs. Elizabeth Royster, initiated a new system of Blue and White Teams. All the girls in the G. A. A. were put on either the Blue or the White Team. Each girl received points towards a party in February, for coming to meetings, getting new girls to join and participate in G. A. A. activities, getting acts for the Talent Show, or for working on various May Day committees.

Points toward G. A. A. pins, letters, and guards were received by participating in such sports as bowling, horseback riding, basketball, modern dancing, apparatus, swimming, roller skating, and archery. Each girl who received a hundred points by participating was awarded a G. A. A. pin. The two hundred point award was a guard with the year in which it was received. The three hundred point award was a John Marshall letter of blue on a white background. The five girls with the highest number of points and the incoming president will be sent to Physical Education Camp at Virginia Beach, Virginia, for a week, this summer.

Officers during this year were Sally Crenshaw, who served as president; Brenda Cocke, who served as vice-president; Judy Pollard, who served as secretary; Pat Fenner, who served as point recorder;

Frances Washe, who served as treasurer; and Jean Beverley and Mickey Murray, who served as historians.

This year the G. A. A.'s main money-making function was the Talent Show, which was given on December 11, 1959, in the John Marshall Auditorium. The theme was "Dear Santa," with each act representing a request from a Jayem student, in the form of a letter to Santa Claus. Mrs. Santa Claus was portrayed by Patty Ganzert; Santa was played by "Pete" Throckmorton. Assisting the Clauses were three elves played by Jackie Fetterman, Rose Mary Nyhammer, and Lois Miles. The acts ranged from "Ragdoll, an act by Arlene Pulley, to "The Kingston Trio plus One."

The tickets sold for fifty cents each, the sale of which netted $455, that will be used to pay the expenses of May Day, an annual production sponsored by the G. A. A., in which all the gym classes participate.

Each of the six classes performed a dance which pertained to the theme, May Memories. The winding of the May Pole was performed by several girls from each dance.

Each grade elected two girls to May Court, with the Senior Class electing eight girls who ran for May Queen. The girls were presented to the student body, and the girl with the highest number of votes, Anne Jackson, was crowned May Queen. Maid of Honor was Sally Crenshaw.

The final activity of the year was a picnic given by the members of the team, who had the least points, to the members of the team, with the most points.

Quill and Scroll

International Honorary Society for High School Journalists

Sponsor . . . . Miss Mary G. Lambert

The Quill and Scroll have long been recognized as the symbols of a writer. Jayem's chapter of Quill and Scroll was organized in 1930, and is the only international organization at school.

Principles of the society are Truth, Initiative, Opportunity, Leadership, Cultural Attainment, Friendship, and Loyalty.

Members are inducted in the fall and the spring of every school year. The John Marshall Chapter enrolled sixteen seniors during the fall semester of 1959.

Those meeting the qualifications represented the Monocle, Marshallite, and Record staffs.

To become a Quill and Scroll member, one must meet certain qualifications. He must rank in the upper third of his class, have done outstanding work on a school publication, be recommended by the chapter sponsor, Miss Mary G. Lambert, and the executive secretary of the Quill and Scroll, Mr. Lester G. Benz.

Quill and Scroll members take active parts in other school activities. They may work on more than one publication. Many are members of the National Honor Society, the Student Association Executive Committee, student commissions, and also participate in many outside activities.

For the first time in 10 years the Junior Class at John Marshall was organized. The purpose behind the organization was to allow the juniors of our school to participate in activities as a group and to prepare for next year in the new buildings. A few of the projects which were undertaken for this year were flowers on the first day of school to all junior homeroom teachers; welcoming the new students to Jayem; Christmas assembly for eighth, ninth, and tenth graders; and active participation in the Junior-Senior Prom planning.

The officers and sponsor are quite happy with the outcome of the first year of the organization of the Junior Class. It is their hope that the Junior Class may continue to exist in the two new schools and may be active in the functioning of the school. It is also their desire to promote more interest among the class so that it may, as a whole, contribute more to the school in the way of activities, projects, and the sponsoring of school functions.

Library Aids

Sponsors:
Miss Marjorie L. Dearhart, Miss Tressie V. Myers

Members of the Library Staff, a school service group, are students who volunteer to devote a part of each school day to assisting in routine duties of the library. Any student who can meet certain scholastic requirements and standards of efficiency is eligible for membership. Since it is through actual experience and service on the part of each member that its objectives are realized, this group is not organized with officers and scheduled meetings.

Each student is trained individually in library techniques in order that he may perform his duties more effectively. The only training period of the year is at the beginning of the fall term and no additions to the Staff are made after this initial training. Approximately thirty-five members have served this year, many of whom have worked at previous times.

By means of a rotating schedule, the responsibility of each person varies from day to day to include the checking of permits, charging and slipping books, collecting fines, shelving books, filing of cards, writing overdue notices, checking of magazines and newspapers, assisting in the preparation of new books for the shelf, and running errands. Student Aids often give individual assistance to fellow students by helping to locate a book on the shelf, assisting in the use of the card catalog, or perhaps suggesting a book that they recently found interesting.

Service credits are given Aids who have performed their duties satisfactorily, and at the Awards Assembly in the spring they receive service award certificates if they have sufficient credits.

The assistance given other students and the service rendered to the school, together with the information acquired in connection with library techniques, combine to make participation as a Student Library Aid an invaluable experience.

The John Marshall Choir maintains a membership of fifty to sixty singers each semester, depending on the number of available competent students and their freedom to schedule the rehearsals without conflict with other subjects. Students are selected on the basis of vocal ability, musicianship and seniority, as well as qualities of cooperation and dependability.

This organization represents John Marshall High School at all functions in the school or community when the services of a choral group are required. Rehearsals are held daily during a regularly scheduled class period. However, a few outstanding students who were unable to schedule the choir class are allowed to participate in performances with a minimum of rehearsals.

Each season several ensembles are formed from among the membership of the choir. These include The Marshall Singers, The Marshallettes, The Boys' Quartet and The Girls' Quartet. In addition to these, the Ritual Quartet assists at each assembly.

Officers are elected at the beginning of each semester. One of their principal functions is to assist the director in selecting music for programs.

During the school year 1959-60 the Choir sang for the following activities: two Christmas assemblies, an assembly concert, the World Day of Prayer Service for Young People, the spring concert, and the baccalaureate and commencement services in February and June. The Marshall Singers sang for the Thanksgiving assembly.

In November, 1938, four students and a faculty sponsor, Miss Rosa Branch, organized the Christian Youth League. The league has grown considerably and has influenced high schools in the Richmond area to organize similar leagues.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Hallie Hootman and Miss Fannie Brown, the league met on Wednesday mornings in the conference room. Various members gave devotions, which enabled us to worship together and enjoy Christian fellowship.

The league sponsored a car at the Thomas Jefferson-John Marshall football game. Mickey Murray took pictures of the car and the Miss Justice float and sold them to members of the league.

For the observance of Thanksgiving, members brought fruit instead of an offering to the meeting and filled a basket for the patients at Sheltering Arms Hospital.

At Christmas the Christian Youth League collected clothes from the student body and gave them to the City Federation of Student Councils for distribution.

The major project of the year was sponsoring a shut-in, Ann Marie O'dell, a John Marshall student. The league tried to keep her in touch with school life. During the term we sent her cards, The Monocle, and favors on Valentine's Day and Easter. We also made personal visits.

In the spring the league had an outing at Marie Bondurant's house which we all enjoyed.

The small membership of the league made it impossible to have nurse's aids at Sheltering Arms Hospital as had been the custom in previous years.

It was impossible to have a city-wide banquet at which new officers are installed because high school students in Richmond will enter a new situation next year.

The members of the Christian Youth League hope that similar leagues will be organized in the new high schools so that Christ will continue to have a part in high school life.

The Parent-Teacher-Student Association plays an important role at JM in that it serves as a liason between the home and the school, making it possible for the parents and students to have a clearer understanding of what is going on in the school and to have a voice in shaping some of the policies. The Executive Committee which consists of four officers, three teachers, three parents, and three students, meets twice a year in the late summer or early fall to make plans for the year, and in the spring to evaluate what has been done. Also, there is an Advisory Committee which meets at times with the principal to help decide upon procedures to follow. All of this leads to a more democratic school and to better public relations; it increases the feeling among parents and students that JM is Our school and we must do everything possible to make it Better and Better.

The PSTA sponsors two general meetings a year. One is held early in the fall in order that parents may meet their children's teachers and get a glimpse of the courses their children will be taking and the standards the teachers expect. The second meeting is held in the spring, when new officers are elected. In addition to the general meetings, the PTSA sponsors three study groups each year: Bridging the Gap Between Junior and Senior High School, Bridging the Gap Between High School and College, Bridging the Gap Between High School and Work. These meetings are a very strong link in our guidance program, for outstanding people serve as panelists and discussion leaders.

For all these reasons, the PTSA occupies a very important niche at JM.

Officers of the orchestra for the first semester were: William B. Holder, President; Myra Kingery, Vice-President; Brenda Overton, Secretary - Treasurer; Gipsy Gary, and James Reynolds, Librarians, and Donald Carver, Property Manager. Officers for the second semester were Myra Kingery, President; Gipsy Gary, Vice-President; Brenda Overton, Secretary-Treasurer; Phyllis Palmieri and Jean Gandy, Librarians; Charles Broadwell and Randall Powell, Property Managers.

On November 5, 1959, the orchestra played at the Grays' Armory for the Community Chest Banquet. At a P. T. S. A. meeting in December, 1959, the orchestra also performed. Music was furnished by the orchestra for the Baccalaureate Services for both the February and June graduating classes, as well as the February Commencement.

A highlight of the year is the formal Spring Concert, formed annually with the Chorus.

All is not work, however, with the members of the orchestra, who look forward each year to the Christmas party, the get-together following the spring concert, and the annual picnic held in June.

Individual members of the orchestra participate in a variety of outside activities. Some of these include the State String Orchestra, the All-State Band, the R. P. I. Orchestra, Dr. Williamson's Orchestra, and the G. A. A. Talent Show.

Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Jesse C. Reynolds did much to make our year's work enjoyable. We sincerely appreciate it.

While learning music, ranging from jazz to serious classicals, the students acquire knowledge also of composers, operas, and musicals. Many of the students play as many as four or five instruments.

Bonjour, mes amis! Let us tell you about some of the activities of John Marshall's Sans Souci Club during the 1959-1960 semester. The club meets the second Monday of each month in Room 114. The programs are presented by the executive officers and members of the club in an attempt to promote more interest in the study of France and the French people.

During the year the members of the club participated in singing French songs, in working les croisés, et en rirant at some of the club meetings.

The vice-president, Karen Bach, led the club in an interesting discussion on the geographical character of France and its surroundings.

Sans Souci's traditional Christmas party was held December 14 in room 312. Dr. Dixon and Miss Kline visited as special guests. The party refreshments and the "crèche" provided a touch of French atmosphere. One of the red and green cup cakes contained a bean and the boy and girl who found the bean were "le roi" and "la reine" of "la fête." The members joined in singing Christmas carole en français.

Mrs. Ruby L. Norris and Mr. Charles Wiltshire, our sponsors, showed us pictures and slides of the various sections of France while telling of their importance. The pictures in both black and white and in color made a colorful program.

Mademoiselle Giletta, a native French teacher (très petite et très charmante), paid our club a visit, talked about France, and answered questions concerning her impression and opinions of America.

One of our spring meetings was devoted to preparations for the language banquet which was held at the Hotel John Marshall April 22.

Au revoir, boys and girls. We hope that this last year at John Marshall has been a wonderful one for all of you and that the French Clubs in the new schools be a great success!

Having skits, movies, speakers, singing Spanish songs, and playing well-known games in Spanish are some of the activities of the Don Juan Club.

This club was created especially for those students who study Spanish or have studied it. The purpose of the club is to help Spanish students acquire a better knowledge of the people and the customs of Spanish-speaking countries and a better understanding of the language.

"Andelante, siempre, andelante," forward, always, forward, is the motto of the Don Juan Club, and it best expresses the aims of its members.

The big program of the year at Christmas consisted of refreshments, games, and other interesting activities.

As customary, the Don Juan Club helped to present the annual foreign language banquet on April 22, at Hotel John Marshall. The President, Barry Goldin, made the welcoming address.

The Don Juan Club meets twice a month on the second and last Thursdays. Miss Emily Babb and Jacqueline Randlette are co-sponsors.

Through activities with a "Spanish slant," the Don Juan Club has attempted to make the study of Spanish an interesting, vital, and informative extra-curricular activity. The club has helped Spanish to be more than just a part of the academic curriculum. Social events are also enjoyed by the members.

The John Marshall Latin Club, organized in 1957, began its third year of activities with twenty-eight members. Since the picture was taken six members have either graduated or completed the course, and seven new members have been taken in: Cleve Crooks, Alma Paxton, Nancye Roberson, Billy Blackwell, Carlton Crooks, Martin Lane, and Ronald Lemieux. These members are all members of the advanced Latin class which sponsors the club and meets the first Monday of each month during the fifth period.

Through membership in the Junior Classical League, the members strive to increase their knowledge of the civilization, language, literature, and art of ancient Greece and Rome. The club programs help to give the students a better understanding of the debt of our own culture to that of classical antiquity. During the year the club has had many interesting and varied programs. Dr. Robert Boyd, professor of Greek at the Presbyterian Training School, talked to the club on the origin and derivation of English words from Latin, Greek and Hebrew. Mrs. Mary Ann Franklin, television consultant and public relations assistant for the Richmond Public Schools, gave the club an illustrated lecture. She showed many colored slides from her travels in the East.

In October the Club commemorated the birthday of Virgil. Sally Crenshaw, Joan Saunders, and Dan McFaden made reports on Virgil and The Æneid, which the class is studying this year. After this program the members played a Latin word game on Virgil's name. Dan McFaden won first prize. When the new members came into the club in February, they were initiated into the club with another program on Virgil and his times and the background of The Æneid. Reports were given and the plot was reviewed by the dramatization of various scenes from the first two books. Some of the older members played the parts of different characters from the epic and a prize was given to the student giving the best portrayal.

Each year the club submits essays to the State Essay Contest and also participates in the State Latin Tournament. Tommy Sprouse won second place in the State Essay Contest with his essay on the Roman Boy. He also won honorable mention in the State Latin Tournament. The club also awards silver medals of the Junior Classical League to outstanding Latin students in the club. Last spring these awards went to Dan McFaden and Sandra Blackwell.

The club always closes the year's activities with a picnic. Last year the members had fun at Forest Hill Park with games, hot dogs, and cokes a la Latin.

Drama Class

Teacher.........................Miss Mary Peple

The Drama Class, a regular part of the speech course, is taught by Miss Mary Peple in Room 209, which is equipped with stage, curtains, lights, a storage-dressing room, and cabinets for properties and costumes. The term begins with a short study of the history of drama. After this, the class is cast in a play and sets about rehearsing in small groups about the room. Each member of the class serves on a committee with a choice of costumes, bulletin boards, props, stage, library, or house.

Members of the cast have the privilege of choosing which class they wish to see their play, but no class may be invited more than once.

Some of the plays given this year were "The Mayor and the Manicure," "Letters," "Never Too Old," "Wisdom Teeth," "Greek to You," "The Dear Departed," "Always a Prisoner," "The Woman in the Freight Car," "The Valiant," "Fourteen," "Overtones," "Holding a Husband," "Wrong Numbers," "Three's a Crowd," and scenes from "Dear Brutus," "The Importance of Being Earnest," and "Quality Street."

Each student keeps a record of his activities during the term in a drama notebook of his own design, with pictures, programs, settings, notes, and reviews.

The class combines hard work and fun to teach poise, independence, cooperation, responsibility, and self-confidence.

The Monocle began the year with a small staff of twenty, at mid-term the staff was increased to thirty-six.

Monocle Day was changed this year, from Thursday to Friday because of the new schedule. In spite of this, there was always the traditional mad rush to get copy to and from the printer.

The staff this year changed subscriptions from semi-annual to annual. This was done partly because of the new schedule and partly to make the business manager's job a little easier. However subscriptions were also accepted at mid-term.

During the Community Chest Drive, The Monocle entered the publicity contest sponsored by the Drive, and tied for first place.

One evening during the fall, Miss Mary G. Lambert, faculty adviser, was quite surprised when she walked into her home and found the staff waiting for her. The surprise birthday party they had planned was a big success.

In January, sixteen members were taken into Quill and Scroll, International Honor Society for High School Journalists. Several members were also initiated in the National Honor Society.

Mrs. Fred B. Dixon, wife of Dr. Dixon, Jayem's principal, was the guest speaker at the semi-annual press banquet in January. Following Mrs. Dixon's talk, Miss Lambert announced staff positions for the twenty-one members and the fifteen returning members after which she presented them with their press cards.

This school year marked the 51st birthday of John Marshall's literary magazine, The Record, published twice a year by and for the students of John Marshall High School.

In 1909, William Parrish became the first editor of The Record. In the fall of 1959, Joan Saunders and John Garber shared the duties of editor. This spring, Joan has continued in this position assisted by Sandra Hicks and Judy Pollard.

For the first 20 years of The Record's life, Jayem teachers alternated the sponsorship of the magazine. Mr. Walter F. Beverly assumed the duties of adviser in 1929 and served loyally and faithfully in that capacity for 30 years. In 1959, Mrs. Anne Vaughan became the faculty adviser.

The Record staff, which numbered from 29 to 35 this year, are recommended by the English teachers and chosen by the staff members. Tuesday afternoon is the regular meeting time for The Record staff. The staff has been entertained royally this year, first, a Christmas party given by Joan; then an oriental dinner, complete with chopsticks, at John's home; and finally the traditional banquet in the spring.

The Record has established a fine reputation for achievement in the literary field. Often schools who plan to start their own magazine consult The Record for advice and ideas. The Record is exchanged with other school magazines across the country for comparison and exchange of ideas. These exchanges have led the editors to make changes in the make-up of the magazine which have made it more attractive.

Awards have keynoted The Record's long history. In 1943, 1946, 1949, and 1950, it received All-American-Honor Rating, NSPA. It received First-Class Honor Rating at NSPA in 1947 and 1957. The SIPA First Place Trophy was awarded to The Record in 1954. More recently, 1959, The Record received the SIPA Honor Award Rating.

The purpose of The Record has been to encourage J. M. students to express themselves creatively and to share their ideas and feelings with their classmates. Thus The Record has been and will continue to be a profitable and worthwhile magazine.

The staff wishes to say orchids to our adviser, Mrs. Anne Vaughan, for her invaluable assistance; to our editors, for their untiring efforts; to Jean Hebert, for her distinctive art work; to You, the student body, for making The Record possible.

The Marshallite

"New Year comes but once a twelvemonth" and so does The Marshallite. This year the staff has worked very hard to present to the Seniors "Dear Old John Marshall."

Our editor is Shirley Robinson; our sponsor is Mrs. Mary T. Burnett; and our financial advisor is Mr. John S. Arnold. They got the staff off to an early start with a meeting and coke party in August. At that time ads were assigned and the "eager beavers" began to pound the pavement in search of new advertisers.

After school began there were many tasks: scheduling senior pictures, club pictures and sports' pictures, and getting subscriptions to The Marshallite. That was just the beginning. Senior roster sheets and pictures had to be counted and alphabetized, and there were many hours of typing to be done by all staff members.

All work and no play was not the staff's problem. Good times were always popping up. A surprise party was held for Shirley on her birthday in the teacher's cafeteria. Among the distinguished guests present were Dr. Dixon, Mr. Parrish, Mr. Arnold, Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. Woolcott, and all the 2c study members. Shirley was spirited into the cafeteria under false pretenses by Bill Chambers, and was she surprised!

We took many trips to the printer of The Marshallite, Mr. Dietz; to the commercial artist, Mr. Ford; and to the engravers, Mr. Christopher and Mr. Rosemond.

This year the S. I. P. A. Conference was held at Lexington. Our representative to the Conference was Faye Kite.

The grand climax of the term was the banquet held at Wright's Town House for staff members who had gotten at least $40.00 worth of ads.

Mrs. Joyce Woolcott, Mr. O. H. Parrish, Shirley Robinson, Carolyn Browning.

John Marshall Evening School

Going to school is a daytime chore for the John Marshall student of 1960. For many an oldtimer—Class of '50, or '40, or '30, or even '20 it has become a nightime pleasure. During the past ten years approximately 926 Jayem graduates have enrolled in the John Marshall Evening School.

In addition to that, more than 329 Tee Jay diploma holders have joined their one-time rivals in the further pursuit of learning at the nightly lighted building in the backyard of the home of Chief Justice John Marshall. During this same period some 2,700 graduates of other high schools have taken classes by candlelight, so to speak, after a hard day's work—in the very same classrooms in which day students thought they were having such a rough time.

This sort of thing has been going on almost from the first day John Marshall High School opened its doors. In fact, it was only two years after that momentous day (in 1911, to be exact) that Mr. W. C. Locker and two teachers started the John Marshall Night School. Before that first session was over, the enrollment had soared to almost 1,200 students, and a few more teachers were added, to be sure. Ever since then the Evening School has been a vital, dynamic factor in the adult education program of our city.

In addition to the high school students who have enrolled in the John Marshall Evening School during the past fourteen years, there has been a sizeable group of students who, for one reason or another, have not had the chance to graduate from high school. A number of these, lacking only a few points, have earned sufficient credits by evening study to obtain their diplomas from John Marshall, Thomas Jefferson, or some other high school.

So, John Marshall at night, you see, is not a dull, dark, dismal pile of bricks and mortar. It is a structure pulsing with life, energy and enthusiasm. Since 1946, Mr. Oscar H. Parrish, well known to our day students, has been principal of the John Marshall Evening School.

John Marshall Summer School

Summer Schools were opened in Richmond in 1911, but it was not until 1932 that all summer school classes offered in the city were held at John Marshall and tuition was charged for each student attending. The John Marshall Summer School offers opportunities in sixth through twelfth grade subjects which provide enrichment for the regular program acceleration toward graduation, or improvement in the mastery of courses partially completed. In addition to students in these grades, postgraduates, college students, and other adults have discovered that eight weeks of the long vacation may bring interesting and profitable returns. Again in 1959, as a part of the John Marshall Summer School, classes were held in six area schools to help students in the transition from semi-annual to annual promotion. More than 2,700 students from nearly a hundred schools were enrolled for the 1959 summer school, with the majority of those enrolled taking new work.

ON THE OCCASION OF THE

JOHN MARSHALL CORPS

OF CADETS'

FORTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

General Conquest, as first commandant, organized the Corps of Cadets in September, 1915. He patterned the John Marshall Corps after that of The Virginia Military Institute, of which, he was a distinguished graduate in the Class of 1914. To this day the future of the John Marshall Corps is of primary importance to him.

Fifteen years ago he met with two-hundred former cadets to establish the John Marshall Cadet Alumni Association. His leadership in the association through these years is unsurpassed and his great enthusiasm for its success and his faithful devotion to its purposes are a constant inspiration to us all.

ASSOCIATION OFFICERS FOR 1960 ARE INSTALLED

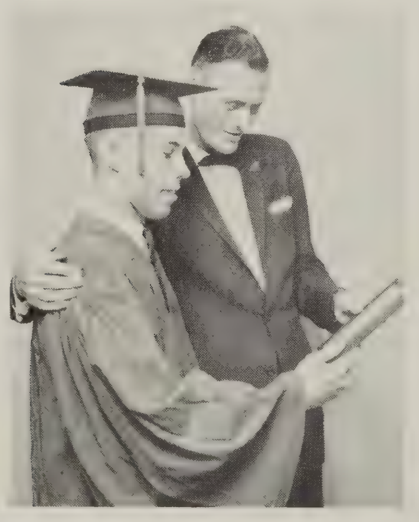
John Marshall Cadet Alumni Association, Inc.

Once again John Marshall High School will be divided to create a new high school. September, 1960, will bring the opening of the new George Wythe High School in South Richmond. John Marshall will lose half of its enrollment to the new school.

Having served eighty-eight years as a downtown school and as a hub of community activity, John Marshall will now become a neighborhood high school moving to North Richmond.

These changes will call for a stronger and more active Cadet Alumni Association. We will need the support of all the cadets of the Class of 1960 to carry on the work of the Association as it moves to north Richmond. We must keep alive the standards and traditions of the old Jayem we know, as it begins a new era in a new location.



John Marshall Cadet Memorial Scholarship for 1959 was won by

INTERMISSION AT ANNUAL ALUMNI REUNION DANCE IS A HOT TIME FOR BAND ALUMNI WHO LED THE "GRAND MARCH."

CLASSES OF 1958 AND 1959 HOLD A REUNION AT CHRISTMAS.

We are planning, too, for the inclusion of a George Wythe Chapter, as a part of our Association. These groups will work as one to bring about a close relationship between the two Corps. Since these Corps will have many of the same activities, some may be held jointly. Such arrangements will contribute to the growth and the preservation of present standards.

In a few years when the George Wythe High School graduates increase to a sufficient number, they may elect their own officers and form a separate association.

As former John Marshall cadets, we will continue in our desire to further the interests of the John Marshall Corps of Cadets. We welcome those alumni who know its value and wish to see it continued, as long as, there is a John Marshall High School.

GRAND MARCH AT REUNION DANCE

"THAT OLD GANG OF MINE"

For years our Corps of Cadets has maintained its reputation of being one of the finest of its kind in the country. The students and faculty at John Marshall have been proud of the precision drill, immaculate dress, and high character of the members of the corps.

The reason for its success can be found in the missions of the corps which are to instill discipline and a high sense of honor, to develop alertness of the mind and co-ordination of the body, and to instruct and train the Corps of Cadets so that each graduate shall have the qualities and attributes essential to his progressive and continued development throughout his life as a good citizen.

THE HONOR COURT

President	William L. Matthews
Judge Advocate	James B. Taylor, Jr.
Secretary	Ronald A. Lively

Honesty is the only lasting foundation upon which trust and friendship can be built. Every organization must have an honor system of some kind for it to be strong, lasting, and honored.

The Honor System of the John Marshall Corps of Cadets is designed to instill in the cadet a true sense of the corps' motto "Duty, Honor, Country," and to further the desire of each cadet to develop within himself a feeling of self-respect and pride.

In order to achieve this goal, each cadet must resolve to implant these standards within himself, for the system of honor is the very life of the corps, the foundation for its system of training, and the support upon which rests the morale and spirit so prominent in the Corps of Cadets.

In any case in which the honor or character of a cadet, or the honor or well being of the corps as a whole is in any way involved, the Honor Court shall consider the act as one reflecting on the code of a gentleman and render its decision accordingly.

The court consists of all commanders, the adjutant, and such others as the court sees fit to elect by unanimous decision, the total membership not to exceed thirteen.

THE GENERAL COMMITTEE

Judge Advocate	Gerald F. Reid
Secretary	Ronald A. Lively

Because of the importance of the Honor System to the Corps of Cadets, the Honor Court and the General Committee work in conjunction with one another in order to preserve its quality and high standards. The primary function of the General Committee is to maintain the high standards of the corps. This end is accomplished by proper instruction of each recruit class, by deciding on points of the Standards not clearly defined, by calling to account those cadets who fail to uphold the Standards, and by personal example.

The General Committee consists of the commanders, class officers, and any other cadets whom the committee sees fit to elect by unanimous decision, the total not to exceed fifteen.

The General Committee is effective because it is composed of the key cadets of the corps—those who know the corps best and can best direct its training toward the high standards that it has maintained for so many years.

The Standards of the Corps of Cadets, guarded by the General Committee, are "Honor, Conduct, Appearance, and Limits." The close adherence to and respect for these standards is one of the things that has made the John Marshall Corps of Cadets the fine organization that it is today.

THE RIFLE TEAM

Captain..........................Charles P. Kemp
Co-Captain..............Maxwell B. Crenshaw, Jr.
Secretary..........................John L. Locke

Part of the training time of all military organizations everywhere is spent in the use of its weapons. It is the same with our Corps of Cadets. Each cadet is given several hours of individual instruction. This is to acquaint him with the fundamental techniques of the use, repair, and care of his weapon. In the marksmanship classes, the cadets use the .22-caliber target rifle rather than the .30-caliber rifle that each carries. This is done because the target rifle is better for marksmanship than the cumbersome drill rifle. Part of the marksmanship class is spent in familiarizing the cadet with the four basic positions of markmanship. These are prone, sitting, kneeling, and standing. All other positions are variations of these four.

The cadets compete to decide who will represent the platoons in the platoon rifle matches. The best of each platoon are selected for its team. The scores made by the various teams have a direct influence on the company's record for the Efficiency Award at the end of the semester.

After the platoon matches, each company selects a single team to represent it in the inter-company matches held later. The best marksmen are used to increase the company's Efficiency Rating for the Award. The best marksmen of the Corps of Cadets are selected to be members of the corps' Rifle Team, if they so desire.

The cadets selected for this honor spend many hours on the firing range, as well as in classes, perfecting their positions and firing techniques. This team represents Jayem in the rifle matches between the corps of schools throughout the state. These scores reflect the training of the Jayem corps and have, through the years, added to Jayem's reputation.

Besides the fun that each member of the Rifle Team gets from firing, he has a chance to win trophies for the school and medals for himself. The members have a chance to improve their marksmanship as well as their state and national ratings.

THE HOP COMMITTEE

Second only to the Competitive Drill, the Cadet Hop creates excitement for the recruits and recalls warm memories for the upperclassmen. When the long awaited evening finally arrives, the couples drift onto the floor of the Armory and into the soothing atmosphere of soft music, pastel colors, and subdued lights. To the upperclassmen the atmosphere is familiarly pleasant, to the recruits it is breathtaking. It is this atmosphere that adds so much to the evening.

Responsible for the hop is the Hop Committee which is charged with the arrangement and conducting of the dance. The committee arranges for hosts and hostesses, supervises the cadets and their guests, arranges for and mounts the decorations, and handles all other duties incident to the success of the hop.

The Hop Committee consisting of twenty to forty cadets, is designated by the First Captain and all company commanders.

After the two or three days of decorating are completed, the committee is rewarded by the beauty that has transformed the Armory from ugly steel girders and chaotic masses of crepe paper to a lovely setting for another Cadet Hop. But most of all, the committee is gratified because of a job well done.

It is the work of the Hop Committee that makes the hop which it is to every cadet. It is the hours of hard work and tireless planning that make the occasion significant as THE Cadet Hop.

The Athletic Department at John Marshall offers a variety of sports to students interested in athletics. For boys there is football, basketball, baseball, and track; for girls, hockey, basketball, and softball.

Our athletic program is one of the best in the state. We are proud of our teams, not only for their good records, but also for the good sportsmanship of the players. By practicing fair play, honesty, and loyalty in sports, we build within ourselves valuable assets that will prove helpful in later life.

And fairly play life's game

John Marshall began a long, long season when highly-favored Petersburg defeated the Justices 37-7 on the Crimson Wave's field. After a week's rest, the Justices faced the Districts' most feared team, Highland Springs. The Springers romped Jayem 34-0 at City Stadium. Manchester, depending on the versatile Butch Nunnally, topped Jayem 19-6. Hermitage, which was favored by only seven points, stomped the Justices 27-0. Hopewell beat Jayem 28-13 at Hopewell. At Parker Field, John Marshall took its sixth defeat at the hands of Douglas Freeman. The Rebels won 13-0. The game against Thomas Dale was canceled due to a driving rain storm. Jayem, believing Benedictine was just a pushover, had to come from behind to tie the Cadets 6-6 at Parker Field.

In the annual game with cross-town rival, Thomas Jefferson, the Justices defeated the Jeffs 12-6. This game ended the oldest prep rivalry in the city with the Blue and White leading 13 games to 11. Five games were deadlocked in the series which has ended due to the prospective division of Jayem into two schools. John Marshall led in first downs (9-8) although Teejay led in total offense (175-169). Various members of the team received recognition. End Tom Throckmorton was selected as a member of the second team All-Metropolitan. Bill Smiley, Jayem's center, made the third team All-Metro. Fullback Buddy Booth and Half-

Jim Patterson received the Best Offensive Trophy while Tom Throckmorton was awarded the Best Defensive Trophy. Henry Pollard, noted for his fine passing, received John Junis' Memorial Trophy for the Most Valuable Player.

Jayem scored 44 points during the season. Bob Rosemond and Tom Throckmorton scored twice. Buddy Booth, Henry Pollard, and Bill Chambers also made the trip into pay dirt. Jim Patterson and J. B. Taylor added extra points.

BASKETBALL

The final season at the Jayem building on Eighth and Marshall ended with a district record of 11-7 and an overall record of 11-8 for the 1959-60 John Marshall Basketball Team.

The Justices started the season with a 53-39 decision over Douglas Freeman and followed it with a 74-57 romp over Manchester, both on the losers' court.

Then the Blue and White dropped a triple overtime decision to Petersburg 56-54. In the following game the Justices lost to Hopewell 53-38 at Hopewell.

Jayem then traveled to Albemarle County where they defeated the Patriots 63-53. They defeated Thomas Dale the next night 64-54. Two nights later they lost to Teejay 74-61.

At Charlottesville, the Blue and White whipped Lane 61-37 and came home on the following night to defeat Manchester 68-58, but lost to Highland Springs 62-36 two nights later.

John Marshall romped Hermitage 71-43 at Hermitage; this game ended the high school athletic careers of Bill Chambers and Henry Pollard at Jayem.

After a 61-46 triumph over Hopewell at the Armory, the Justices lost three straight: to Petersburg 64-61, Teejay 69-55, and Highland Springs 61-37.

Jayem got back on the winning road with a 72-51 win over Hermitage and a 68-63 victory over Albemarle.

In the Central District Tournament, Hopewell defeated the Blue and White 60-57.

Co-captain Bubba Crone was placed on the first team All-District and the second team All-Metropolitan. Co-captain Bill Chambers made honorable mention on the All-District squad.

Jayem scored 1,110 points for an average of 58.7 points per game. Bill Chambers was the leading scorer on the team with an average of 13.5. He was followed closely by Bubba Crone with a 13.4 average. David Terry was third with an average of 9.7.

At the annual Basketball Banquet, held on March 19, 1960, which the Dad's Club gave the teams, both the varsity and junior varsity received individual trophies. They also gave the varsity and junior varsity Cheerleaders miniature megaphones.

C. G. Winston received the trophy for the Best Foul Shooter, hitting on 81% of his free throws. Bill Chambers was the recipient of the Best Defensive trophy. Bubba Crone was named the Most Valuable Player of the team for the 1959-60 season.

TRACK

Snow heralded the beginning of track practice for the 1960 season. Practicing in all kinds of weather and even once during an early spring blizzard, the John Marshall thinclads strove to get into top form. Handicapped by the inclemency of the weather, they lost their first meet with Manchester. This meet and the following one proved to be the downfall of the "boys in blue" because several key men were injured. These injuries coupled with a lack of speed served to hold down the point-getting ability of the whole team.

An uncompleted list of meets shows the following results: Manchester 69½-J. M. 43½; Hermitage 68-J. M. 45; Douglas Freeman 88-J. M. 20; Highland Springs 74½-J. M. 38½; Hopewell 69-J. M. 44.

John Marshall's baseball team started practicing for its 1960 campaign on March 1. Cold weather and late winter snow storms prevented the Justices from having too much outside activity.

Nevertheless, their record for this season has been a good one. In the first contest of the new season, Jayem defeated Petersburg 4 to 1 at Hotchkiss Field. The Justices defeated Hopewell 8 to 6 on the loser's field but lost to Highland Springs, a district power. Then they whipped Thomas Dale 11 to 3 and lost to Petersburg 3 to 0. The Blue and White edged Douglas Freeman 3 to 2 at Freeman and lost the next three in a row. (They dropped decisions to arch-rival Teejay 17-8, to Hermitage 6-5, and to Hopewell 3 to 2.) In the next games they defeated Highland Springs 1 to 0, and lost to Thomas Dale 4 to 0, then defeated Douglas Freeman 5 to 4.

This season was one for rebuilding. Jayem lost a veteran at seven of the nine positions on the field. The only two regulars from last year's squad are Bill Smiley who had the best won and lost record, and Clyde Ragland who plays left field and landed a position on the all-central District Team.

HOCKEY

The year 1960 was a proud one for the Lady Justices' field hockey team. They boasted a record of five wins and only two defeats by their arch rivals, St. Catherine's and Collegiate.

"Tunie" Dooley, the center forward and co-captain of the team, led the forward line with 19 goals. Carolyn Coleman, left inner, was next in line with 7 goals. Other members of the forward line were Sharon Kerrick and Nancy Harris, who were alternate right inners; Eleanor McJilton, who was right wing; and Jean Hebert, who was left wing.

The backfield was composed of Frances Mayer, who played center half-back; Carole Bishop, who played right half-back; Mary Lou Breeden, the other co-captain who played left half-back; Nancy Smiley, who played left full-back; and Phyllis Palmyra, who played goaley.

At a tournament in November at St. Catherine's, "Tunie" was chosen for the Tidewater All-Prep Team. Frances Mayer, Carolyn Coleman, and Jean Hebert made the All-Reserve Team.

Five seniors will be lost next season because of graduation in June.

The Junior Varsity did not have a winning season this year, but they gained the experience which they will need as members of next year's varsity.

The Justicettes, the girls' basketball team, ended its season with six wins and one defeat, an excellent record and a great improvement over its 1959 record of three wins and six defeats.

In their first contest the Justicettes defeated Manchester with a comfortable margin, then went on to sweeping victories over Highland Springs, Saint Catherine's, and Petersburg.

Victory was hard to gain in the contest with Saint Gertrude's, a long time rival. It was a tense moment when the Justicettes froze the ball to keep the Saint Gertrude's team from scoring further points, and therefore overcome the three-point lead the Lady Justices had. The final score was a dramatic 45 to 42.

"Tunie" Dooley led the team with a fabulous average of almost 20, surpassing her 1959 record of 19.2. Carole Bishop came in second with a 14.7 average, a great improvement over her last year's average of 11.6. Carol Stinson's average was 8. Guards for the 1960 Lady Justices were Francis Mayer, Linda Pace, and Carolyn Beasley who did a brilliant job of controlling the backboard and of recovering the ball for the scoring aces.

Mrs. Margaret Parham, who is spending her second year coaching the Justices, said, "I think the girls have done a grand job this year, and I am very proud of them."

Two girls from the team made the All-Prep Team in a tournament held at R. P. I. on March 5, 1960. They are "Tunie" Dooley and Linda Pace. Carole Bishop made the All-Prep second team.

Only two varsity members will return next year, as the team is losing four senior members. The two returning lettermen are Carol Stinson and Carolyn Beasley.

SOFTBALL

The 1959 Lady Justices softball team was comprised of Florence Barnard, Carolyn Beasley, Carole Bishop, Frances Mayer, Nancy Harris, Myra Van de Rite, Jean Hebert, Eva Robertson, Phyllis Palmierie, and Brenda Chambers. The girls worked hard and ended the 1959 season with a record of three games won and four games lost.

The girls started the season with a win over Thomas Jefferson, a feather in the cap of any Jayem team, girls or boys.

"The most exciting game," said Frances Mayer, a junior and catcher for the Lady Justices, "was with Manchester. It was raining cats and dogs, and the field was wet and muddy. At the end of the game the score was tied, five to five. We went into a three-inning overtime, with rookie Nancy Harris pitching."

The final score of this game was a close one: John Marshall eight, Manchester seven. Florence Barnard was the high scorer of the Manchester game, played at Westover Playground, with a score of three runs. The Lady Justices had not defeated their arch rival Manchester in three years.

This year Tunie Dooley and Nancy Harris were pitchers, Frances Mayer and Phyliss Palmierie were catchers, Carolyn Beasley played right field, Carole Bishop played left field, Myra Van de Rite played center field, Frances Mayer played first base, Jean Hebert played second base, Florence Barnard played third, and Eva Robertson played short stop.

Jean Hebert was high scorer for the 1959 Lady Justices, with Frances Mayer and Carolyn Beasley next in line.

Carolyn Coleman, manager for the 1959 season, said, "Although the team didn't have a winning season this year, I enjoyed being manager for them. I'm looking forward to being with them again next year."

Miss Helen McKenny coached the Lady Justices this year.

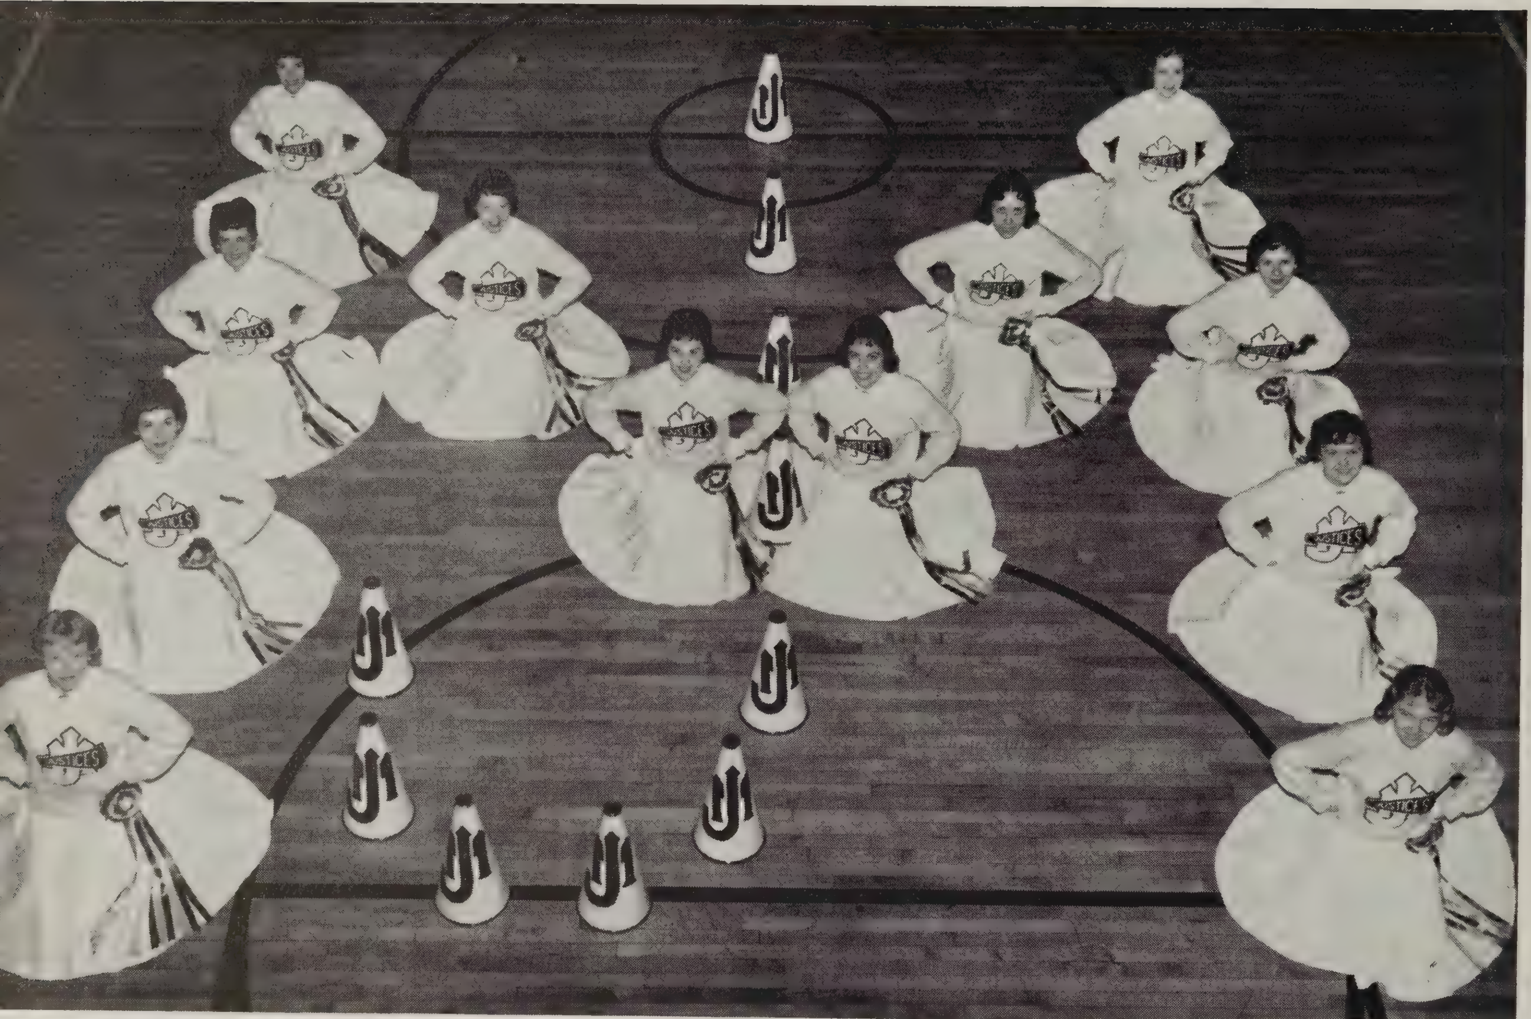
Cheerleaders



Carolyn Crowder, Lynda Switzer, Judy Spain, Carolyn Davis, Pat Bland, Nancy Reid, Anne Jackson, Sandra Carver, Linda Pace, Lillie Taylor, Patty Ganzert, Sandra Fowler.

Just as soon as the cheerleaders for 1959-60 were chosen early in June, they talked of the importance of perfecting the cheers and began a schedule of practicing two nights each week.

The first appearance was made on orientation day when new students were greeted and welcomed to Jayem with cheers and school songs.

Early in September, the girls traveled to Petersburg to cheer for the opening game of the football season.

Although their main purpose was to support the team at each game, the squad cooperated with the school spirit commission, and participated in Pep Rallies proceeding each game.

On October 26 they were guests of the community chest and in return did their part to cheer them on to success in their drive. Another enjoyable event for the squad was the annual district cheer rally that was sponsored by Thalhimers.

Friday, November 20, found the Justice cheerleaders scurrying around. This was the most spirited occasion of the year; the continuous chant "Beat T. J." was heard throughout the day in preparation for the game of the year. That evening the girls wore corsages sent to them by the team and with the help of an unusually enthusiastic crowd, cheered Justice to their first victory of the year. The following night, the Athletic Club gave a victory dance-banquet for the team and cheerleaders. The girls received gold achievement trophies.

Basketball came in with a bang as the Justice cheerleaders watched the Big Team place fourth in the Central District with a 11-7 season.

Saturday, March 19, the Athletic Club gave another banquet in honor of the team and cheerleaders. This affair was held at the YMCA, and the girls received silver megaphones. For his first year as sponsor and for the grand job he did, Mr. H. H. Bowling was given a plaque by the squad. It reads as follows: "To Our Sponsor H. H. Bowling with Appreciation from the J. M. Varsity Cheerleaders 1959-60."

"Take me out to the ball game" was the cry Friday, April 1, as the baseball team met Petersburg at home. The girls were there ready to see their team win.

Such was the busy year of the John Marshall cheerleaders. They cheered when J. M. was winning and when it was trailing the opponent. With the help of the student body, they displayed wonderful spirit and loyalty for "Dear Old John Marshall."

Co-Captains: Anne Jackson, Nancy Reid.

Front to back: Linda Simmons (Captain), Beverly Goodman, Joanne Cropper, Frankie Shelton, Janet Gormus.

Through the years John Marshall's activities have increased, giving its students an opportunity to broaden their interests. Activities at John Marshall have contributed much toward making this last year a memorable one. And students, in turn, have contributed much to the history of John Marshall.

More glory to your name,
John Marshall High

Are you that "Special" Gal we're looking for?

We hope so. Because we have interesting jobs for "special" gals here at the telephone company.

If you're alert and like people, you'll like it here. The surroundings are pleasant, the pay is good right from the start—and you'll have lots of opportunity for advancement and raises.

There's a "special" extra, too. You'll have that wonderful feeling of making an important contribution to your community. Come talk to us about telephone work. We'd love to meet you!

SPECIAL REPORT TO YOUNG MEN OF TOMORROW

UNLIMITED OPPORTUNITY

awaits you in the pulp and paper industry

WHERE WILL you go after high school To work? To trade school? To College? For the young man interested in college training, the pulp and paper industry has a continuing need for new technical personnel and offers unlimited opportunities for advancement in this exciting field.

THE SPECTACULAR growth of this industry makes possible top wages and security in a host of highly skilled technical positions. A four-year college education is preferred for such positions as pulp technologists, plant chemists, quality control specialists and production trainees.

SCHOLARSHIP help at North Carolina State College in Raleigh is available for college majors in pulp and paper technology, and highly remunerative employment within the industry is usually available during the summer vacation periods. Graduates of this program are qualified for quick advancement in production, technical and top management positions within the industry. Applications for pulp and paper scholarships for the academic year beginning next fall must be made by May 15.

IF YOU are a young man in high school who has above average grades in math, physics, chemistry and related subjects, we urge you to contact us or your Guidance Coordinator. We will gladly explain to you in detail about the opportunities awaiting you in this fascinating industry.

The Mark of A Champion . . .

WHEN a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.

It's a good life
at The Life of Virginia

Your high school diploma is your passport to a good job with a real future, at the Home Office of The Life of Virginia. And it's a secure future with this outstanding insurance company . . . the kind of company you'll choose when you take out your own life insurance.

Come by or write for booklet that gives you the facts about your opportunities . . . how other young people have succeeded . . . and working conditions. Good pay, of course; five-day week; free advancement training courses; liberal vacations; air conditioned offices; employee cafeteria; insurance and retirement plans. It's all in the free folder, "Now, Really . . .". Be sure to get your copy.
